THE 1970 SHIELD

A Year in the Life

The first days passed so slowly — thank goodness for assemblies and unexpected fire drills. Then before we knew it along came first nine weeks exams, report cards, and subfreshmen being put up. No one minded the arrival of the Christmas holidays . . . We didn't return until the next year, 1970 . . . Basketball season ended as third quarter neared . . . The Junior Class "cordially" invited the Senior Class to the Junior-Senior Prom . . . The class of 70 received their rings and the class of 73 were almost "Big Freshmen" . . . About this time we caught spring fever and thoughts turned toward the upcoming summer months . . . Senior activities preceded the final and most important event — Graduation of the Class of 1969 . . . Final exams and report cards ended the year . . . A Year in the Life.

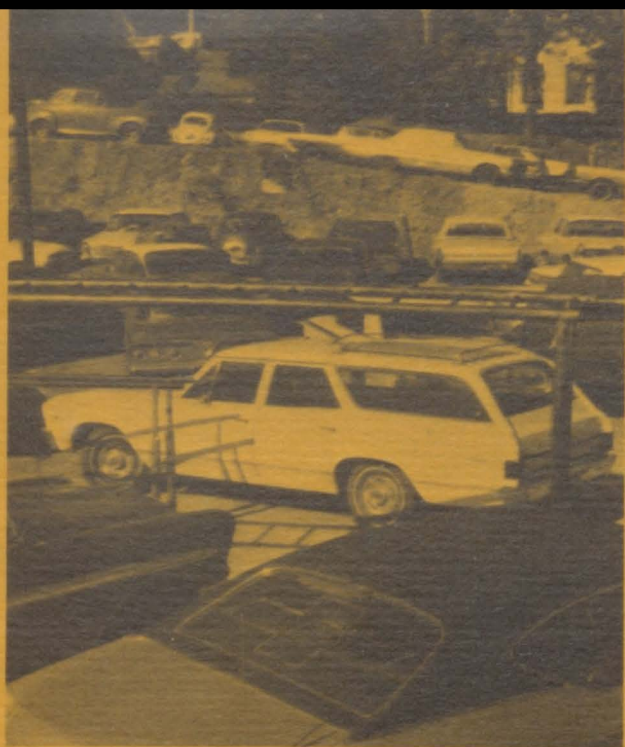

The 1970 Shield recreates this year in the Life of Dudley Hughes.

Mr. Amos tests . . . boring classes . . . Not so boring classes . . . Crowded halls . . . basketball . . . Names on desks . . . demerits . . . What's the answer to number 10?

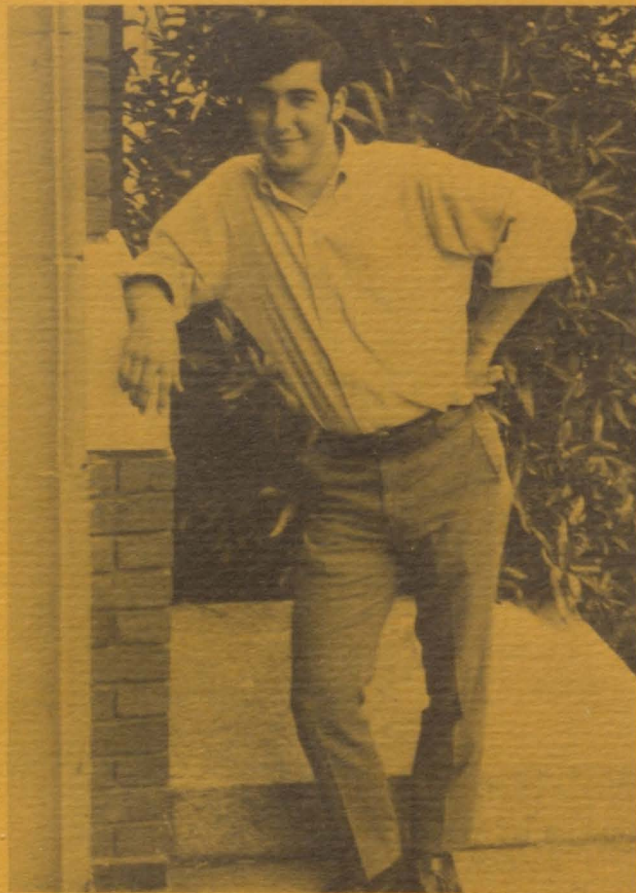

An overcrowded parking lot . . . extra credit
 . . . The Hughes Herald comes out today . . .
 PSAT, SAT . . . being late to homeroom . . .
 "We're number one" . . . What time is this class over?

Overdue Library books . . . Checking out early to go home . . . daydreams
. . . unsuccessful fire drills . . . What's for lunch today?

Comparing schedules . . . taking notes . . .
passing notes . . . lab books . . . too much homework . . . honey he's cute . . . Spook dance . . . How many more days until we graduate?

Going early or staying late for club meeting . . . report cards . . . long homeroom schedule . . . "Loyalty we'll Never lack, to Alma Mater — Gold and Black" . . . Did you study for Mr. Floyd's test?

Frightened Sub-Freshmen . . . trips to the Counselors' Office . . . Hamlet in Mrs. Cross' English Class? . . . defeat and victory . . . Homecoming . . . May I borrow a pencil?

ALMA MATER

Dudley Hughes our Alma Mater
Loyal we shall be

Black and Gold we'll always honor
Memories of thee

Loving memories we shall cherish
May they never die

Glory to our Alma Mater
Hail to thee HUGHES HIGH

In Memoriam

Ronnie Strickland

Born: November 28, 1952

Died: December 3, 1969

Sadly missed by the faculty and students of Dudley Hughes Senior High.

Death is inevitable. It is a democracy for all people, not an aristocracy for some of the people — Kings die and beggars die; young men die and old men die; learned men die and ignorant men die. We need not fear it. Death is not the ultimate evil; the ultimate evil is to be outside God's love.

So ends the sixteenth YEAR in the life of The Shield . . . A few of us are sad to see the year go . . . Most of us welcome our three months of parole . . . Too soon vacation will be over . . . School will begin again . . . The school year 1970-71 will be here — leaving 1969-70 behind only as memories . . . the teacher who gave fine demerits for "being late" . . . liking that certain person . . . traveling to outrageous places with Mrs. Ruffin and Mr. Amos for special pictures . . . Mrs. Ruffin screaming about deadlines . . . these are other recollections . . . the 1970 Shield.

Dianne Simmons
